The Voice of the Loyal Press

We collate from our California files received by steamer a series of articles reviewing the late action of the President. We have not yet seen a true Union journal which speaks in support of his position. The first extract we give is from the Stockton Independent:

Against every moral and multiplied physical demonstration of implacable hate on the part of the citizens of the South, of what avail is it that the President tells us peace exists in those States? Accounts continually reach us of armed rebel demonstrations against peaceable Union people from Nashville to Mobile. Why, then declare peace, withdraw the Federal troops, arm a disloyal militia and leave four millions of blacks at the mercy of bands of incorrigible whites? Can the State of Mississippi suppress the evils complained of? Would her authorities do it if they could? The President tells Congress that "the State of Tennessee, for instance, whose authorities were engaged in rebellion, was restored to her constitutional relations by the patriotism and energy of her injured and betrayed people, and he knows no reason why Tennessee should not fully enjoy all her constitutional relations to the United States." The thousands of soldiers from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York and New England who fought their way from Fort Donelson and Bowling Green all through Tennessee, leaving arms and legs at Pittsburg Landing, Murfreesboro, Nashville and Chickamauga, will be surprised when they hear that Tennessee was wrested from the rebels (her own included), not by "the patriotism and energy of her injured and betrayed people," but by the patriotism and valor of her Northern sister States. Those loyal Northern men have now an equal right with Tennessee patriots to homes on her soil. But can Tennessee afford them protection as against her own restored rebels? The following language, as reported in the veto message appears to be bodly chosen:

The President stands toward the country in a different attitude from any member of Congress, who is chosen by the people of all the States. Eleven States are not represented, and it would seem to be his duty to present their just claims to Congress." The President was not talking to "any member of Congress," but to all or Congress, which is at least his equal in this Government, if not his superior, nor was he "chosen by the people of all the States." At least nine of the eleven States once in rebellion failed to give him a single vote. He concludes with the opinion that if "the Federal Courts, with the aid of the Southern militia, fail to give protection to all classes," "the Executive is already armed with power to enforce the laws." As against rebellion, yes, but the President can do very little without the aid of Congress, whom he appears, in this concluding sentence, so cruelly to snub. He cannot keep up a regular army or support a single volunteer regiment, unless Congress votes him the means. If he nominally carries the sword, the House really holds the purse-strings of this nation; and it is due to Congress that he profoundly respects the opinions of two thirds of the House on so solemn a question as may involve another outbreak in the South. If it shall transpire that the views of Congress are the safest and soundest, and that for their rejection the country must suffer again in life and treasure, this seemingly curt veto message will be quoted in all time against even the constitutional powers of the President of the United States.

[From the Auburn, (Cal.) Stars and Stripes.]

When President Johnson took it upon himself to "reconstruct the Union" without the aid of Congress or the counsel and countenance of the leaders of the Union party, he assumed a task which, as the event has proved, was beyond his strength, and a burden of responsibility which is likely to crush him under its ponderous bulk. It may be that his "plan of reconstruction" was honestly conceived, and that he really believed it was the best and most practicable way of restoring the Union of the States; but its failure from the very commencement of his efforts to put it in operation was apparent to every intelligent observer; and the fact that it was applauded only by Secessionists and Copperheads, while it was odious to the patriots who had stood by the Government in its darkest hours, ought to have convinced him of its faultiness and impracticability. Had he possessed a moiety of the strong common sense which was the guiding star of his truly great predecessor, Lincoln, he would have abandoned his plan when he found it so distasteful to Congress and to the country, and given over his delusion of conciliating the rebel element of the South by an exhibition of unbounded forbearance and generosity, when he found, to use his own language, that "they could not appreciate his magnanimity." The perverse obstinacy with which he persists in a course so difficult and perilous as that which he is attempting to pursue toward the subjugated rebel States is not creditable either to the man or to the Chief Magistrate. It becomes daily more and more evident that, had he the power, he would soon lay the nation prostrate at the feet of the conquered rebels. Fortunately for the country, the Union majority in Congress is united, and strong enough and intelligent and determined enough to prevent the President from doing any serious harm beyond the restoration of liberty and political privileges of a number of hemp deserving traitors, upon whom the blood of thousands of murdered patriots is calling aloud for vengeance. That he could do, and is doing daily, while his vaunting declaration that "treason against the Government must be punished and rendered odious, and the American people taught that it is the highest crime that can be committed" is being redeemed by the open interchange of complimentary speeches with the rebels as ever scourged a Yankee school ma'am on suspicion of sympathizing with a cruelly oppressed race, or murdered a Union soldier in cold blood for daring to shoulder a musket in defence of his country against the chivalry. Thank God, Andrew Johnson has not the power to fix the status of the subjugated rebel States, or to name the terms on which they shall be again received into the Union on an equal footing with loyal States!

[From the Sacramento Union.]

In a crisis like this, it is of vital importance that those who are proud of the record they have made as Union men should stand together. There can be no middle, half and half party. Either the powerful organization which extends over North and South and which was identified with the rebellion will get possession of the Government, repudiate the national debt, tax loyalists to reimburse rebels for their losses, ostracise patriots exalt traitors and attempt to restore slavery, or the glorious party which won the great battle of liberty, and Union, which cherishes free institutions and guards the national honor, will continue to prevail over obstructions and carry out its policy. The Union majority in Congress is large and includes a surprisingly small number of markgable men. The Senate counts a half dozen men who were elected to represent radically loyal States, but who evidently care more for federal patronage than for principle for the welfare of the republic. The Unfaithful Senators.

The truth of the dispatch which was published in our issue of yesterday to the effect that the Freedmen's Bureau Bill had the approval of the President at the time it was framed, and that he had only withheld his sanction of it only a short time for fear of the veto, will appear very probable if we carefully consider some of the circumstances and incidents attending his final stand for action on the bills. The bill was at the Senate on the 25th of January by a vote of 37 to 10. The Union members of the Senate unanimously favored it. There was no opposition to the bill except from the Democratic side. The bill had not yet been started that it was unconstitutional to enact laws for the Southern States while those States were unrepresented in Congress. This was an afterthought. Union Senators desired to protect the freedmen in the still disloyal States. There were no apprehensions about the loss of the bill. Nobody while it was before the President would not favor it. But after the bill had passed both Houses and had been sent to the President for his signature, it began to appear that he regarded it with disfavor. It was suggested to him that his peculiar plan of reconstruction would be defeated, were Congress allowed to legislate upon matters which pertained to the late rebel States. Immediately the Copperhead press went to work to secure all the votes enough of purchasable members of the Union Senate to sustain the veto which was sought from the President. The ingenuity in keeping the fact that several Senators who had pledged the bill could be relied on to sustain it in case the veto came. These men who could not hold out against the promises of the veto of the President, were Doolittle of Wisconsin, Morgan of New York, Morton of Minnesota, Dixon of Connecticut, Stewart of Nevada, and Van Winkle of Western Virginia. They had all voted for the bill when it was put on its passage. Why did they so suddenly change their minds and discover that it was unconstitutional and wrong? Why, indeed? It was because the White House had been heard from, and they were willing to vote against the will or face the power of the President?

Aside from the unfaithfulness of these Senators, the President and the Copperheads were able to control their majority. These men have forfeited the confidence of the loyal party. But in spite of the desertion of the majority in Congress is still powerful, and so it will remain.

A Rhetorical Prodigal.—Among the passengers by the steamer Pacific, which reached this place yesterday morning, was "Lieutenant-Colonel John Lane, C. S. A.," son of Joseph Lane of "mé and Rosie" fame, and of "you must walk over my dead body" notoriety. "Colonel" John Lane went out in the spring of 1861, determined to live no longer under the "Republican Lincoln Government." He entered the rebel army as a lieutenant and fought through the South for upwards of four years in search of his "rights." At the end of that time he again found himself under the flag of the "hateful Abolition Government."

Like other rebels of greater and lesser note, he fought against his country to the extent of his ability; but after the failure of the "noble cause," he, in common with others, magnanimously consented to be "reconstructed and conciliated," on condition that the right to vote the Democratic ticket, and to run for office would not be taken from them. It is very unfortunate for the Oregon Democracy that "Colonel" John Lane did not return two or three months earlier. Through the influence of our "tyrannical" laws he will be deprived of that precious right of the Confederate Democrat—the privilege of voting in the coming election. Perhaps, however, as "Colonel" Lane has all along regarded himself as a citizen of the "Confederate States of America"—a foreign country—he will have to be naturalized before he recovers his "political rights." At any rate he may be relied up to vote the Democratic ticket whenever he gets a chance. In speaking of his rebellious acts it is but just to add that he was sent South by his father, and did not go altogether of his own choice.

The Copperheads last spring would have it that Andrew Johnson was disgracefully drunk when he delivered his somewhat celebrated inaugurative speech. His late speech to a theatrical rabble at Washington was equally as incoherent and in as quite as bad taste as that of the fourth of March. Let us see if the Copperheads will charge that he was drunk on the occasion of this last speech.

New Volume.—The Oregon State Journal published at Eugene City has commenced its third volume. The Journal is an important auxiliary of the Union party in that section of the State. We are extremely glad to hear that it is prospering beyond the most sanguine expectations of its proprietor.

The Charleston South Carolinian discusses the Northern vs. the Southern Press, and says:

If loyalty means the acceptance of the tenets of the faith of the destructives, the cry of hallelujahs, rather than the utterance of lamentations the clapping of hands at the Star Spangled Banner, when, in fact, we have no nationality, and the shouting of glad hurrahs over a peace that brings no solace to our hearts, the men, women and children of the South have now no such loyalty to bestow. In all that becomes manliness and honor we are to-day a Union loving people in our externals at least, but we cannot yet kiss the hands that subjugated us, or be reasonable to those irrepressible feelings which compel the expression of our woe.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO FEBRUARY 26.

Comments of the Press on the President

Chicago Feb 26—Five communists of the Union press upon the recent speech of the President, proclaim it an unanimous. The Cincinnati Gazette says:

Notwithstanding the speech by Johnson on the occasion of his inauguration it is the most disgraceful document of which there is any record and we presume there is no high minded man in the United States who does not feel ashamed of the performance.

The Boston Journal bantering, thinks all the Democratic organs in the defence of the President thinks that as the opposition of some Government Republicans had a tendency to injure the Union cause at this day will hardly be condemned by the wrath of radical Senators or editors.

The New York Tribune remarks the President analyzes. If it were possible at present to find an intelligent observer unbiased by contending partisans he would be constrained to bear testimony to the forbearance moderation and constant devotion to the Constitution and Union, by which Andrew Johnson has been distinguished from the first movement of his elevation to power. In an especial manner have these qualities been displayed since the commencement of the present session of Congress. Uninfluenced by the temptations of power or the appeals and threats of members, he has pursued the even tenor of his way with a firmness not marred by arrogance, and a clearness of purpose which has preserved him from mistake. He has neither attempted to dictate terms nor succumbed to factions by which others sought to influence his conduct. Insolence he has met with resolution; threats he has turned aside by an appeal to the calm judgment of the country.—Radicals he has circumvented by quiet but fearless appeal to the requirements of the Constitution and the principles which underlie the liberties of the American people.

Springfield Ill Feb 26.—A mass meeting will be held here this evening to sustain Congress.

More Johnson Democracy.

Washington Feb 25.—President Johnson has received the following telegrams: Keokuk Iowa Feb 24th. An immense mass meeting was held here to night. Great enthusiasm. One hundred guns were fired. Your veto message and administration were endorsed unanimously.

(signed) THOS W CLAGGETT

Gov. Dennison and the President are in receipt of a large number of telegrams and letters from various points, stating that the President will be sustained upon the other side. The Republican members are receiving appeals to stand out for their rights and not allow the crime of treason confessed to sit in judgment upon their cases. Gov. Dennison considers that he is indorsed by his friends in Ohio, for taking his present course while the President has not the slightest doubt of success with the House.

The Money Market.

New York, Feb 25.—Commercial's Washington special dispatch says the political excitement shows no abatement. The money market has symptoms of recovery from the depression produced last week by the treasury gold transactions. It is difficult to conceive what can have moved the Treasury Department to this violent disturbing course. It is presumed that for the present the Treasury has suspended sales, consequently there is more confidence among buyers.

Further Indorser of the President.

Alabama, Ga., Feb. 24.—Alexander H Stephens addressed the Georgia Legislature February 22d, saying the great object of his life was now the restoration of peace, prosperity and constitutional freedom. He invites all to co-operate and tells them that their first duty is the cultivation and exercise of patience under present afflictions, the chief among which he says are their being obliged to pay their proportion of taxes while denied representation; their partial subjection to military rule, etc. He deprecates discussion of past motives, declaring that Georgia must accept the results of the war, obey them in good faith in the future, and all must rally around the great standard bearer of the Constitution and Liberty—President Johnson.

Mrs Jeff. Davis is at Macon, the guest of Howell Cobb, and receives great attention.

Congressional

Washington, Feb 26.—In the House to day, Lehman, of Michigan, offered a bill obtaining the President's Freedmens' Bureau—referred to the committee on freedmen.

McClurg, of Missouri, offered a resolution providing that contributions be levied upon the disloyal inhabitants of the disloyal States to pay the expenses of troops in the South—referred to the committee on reconstruction.

The House committee on public lands stand five in favor of Julian's bill for the survey and sale of the mineral lands, and four against it. McRae of California, will submit a minority report. The recent decision of the Supreme Court recognising possessory titles in mining claims strengthens the opposition to the bill.

Attorney General Speed has sent to the Senate a communication in answer to the resolution of that body, setting forth that it is impossible to the interest of United States to assert its title to Pueblo Lands claimed by the City of San Francisco, and the records of his office do not inform what persons are individually interested in the success of the United States.

The Supreme Court has dismissed Mahoney's appeal in the Cayuga Meced Land case and confirmed the Ransom survey.

Washington, Feb 26.—In the Senate, Grimes of Iowa, called attention to the published dispatch from Keokuk, Iowa, of a meeting to endorse the President, signed Clagett, and said he was unwilling that the report should go forth as representing the sentiment of Iowa.

Lane, of Kansas, moved to take up the credentials of Baxter and Snow, Senators elect from Arkansas, which being done, the motion to admit them was laid on the table—22 to 18.

The House concurred in the resolution declaring that Congress will not admit Southern Representatives till the States have been declared entitled to representation, was then taken up, and Sherman proceeded to address the Senate, contending that the resolution conferred no additional power, and was only declaratory.

In the House, Bingham of Ohio, adverted to the Constitutional Amendment, reported from the Reconstruction Committee that Congress shall have power to make all laws necessary to secure to citizens of each State all privileges enjoyed by citizens of several States. Rogers, of New Jersey, spoke against it as a most dangerous movement toward centralization.

Montana.—We have intelligence from Montana to February 3d. From the Post of that date we gather the following:

The Indians are on the war path, and are plundering and murdering by wholesale. Governor Meagher has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to arm against the savages. He says:

I have in my possession 30 serviceable Spring field muskets 8,000 rounds of buff cartridge boxes, cartridge boxes, and other accoutrements. This is all I have in my power to contribute personally to the expedition. But I consider the duty of all those who live in the more secure settlements of the Territory—all those who can freely do so—to go to the rescue or protection of those who are at its outposts, and exposed to such risks and perils as inevitably attend a life in the neighborhood of the Indians.

The conduct of the Bloods and Piegans all through the the negotiations of the Fort Benton treaty, the distribution of the annuities, and from that out up to the present date has been that of the most ill conditioned vagabonds. It is true this treaty remains to be ratified by the Senate and President of the United States, and it cannot be properly said that these predatory and murderous Indians have violated its stipulations until it be so ratified. But they have violated the property and lives of our people and their recalcitrancy and crimes will be checked alone by the infliction of the heaviest retribution. We owe it to our noble Territory to inflict the retribution as soon as possible, otherwise its development and progress, its occupation in full by an enterprising and intrepid people and its lawful reduction to their dominion will be signalized by the frequent assassination of our pioneers, the invasion of their homesteads and the destruction of their property.

Louis Garcia reported to us on Tuesday last that three men had been killed by Blackfeet Indians 20 days previously out of a party of six hunters on the Yellowstone river. The brother of one of the murdered men was his (Mr Garcia's) informant and he further stated to us that the young man having met a Blackfoot, asked him if he was of that nation on receiving an affirmative reply he instantly shot him dead. A party of six hunters with a large quantity of meat and 100 green hides are also missing. It is possible that the three Blackfeet are the same as the one mentioned in the letter from Benton, published in this issue.

Gov. Meagher has issued a proclamation convening the Territorial Legislature on the 4th day of March next.

Union County.—We learn that great numbers of cattle have died in Grand Ronde Valley the present winter. A correspondent writes that many freight trains have been wholly lost. Eighty head of work oxen be onging to one man had died.

Upper Country News.

The Idaho Statesman says that a new trail will be laid out in the spring from Boise City to Helena by Fort Lemhi on Salmon river. The distance is said to be two hundred and fifty miles. This must be the same line heretofore spoken of as the settlers who may try it go over the ground early in the spring will find that the snow will range from three to twenty feet from the head of the East Fork of the Payette to near Lemhi.

The hostile demonstration of the Snake Indians in Southern Idaho is the most important piece of information we have from the interior. They have for several weeks past been actively engaged in depredating on way farers and wagon trains. Capt White First Oregon Cavalry stationed at Camp Lyon went out after the Indians who had been in the neighborhood of Ruby City, and had a skirmish with them in which he lost one man killed. Some fears are entertained for the safety of Camp Lyon. Forty mounted men from Camp Boise have gone to the assistance of Capt White and the troops in the Harney Lake country will move in that direction as soon as it is practicable to march. A company of citizen volunteers is forming at Owyhee to number one hundred. On Snake river, the Indians have driven off the cattle of Henry G Miller who resides on Burnt river. The robbers were pursued without being overhauled. The present season will probably witness the total repression of savage warfare in the vicinity of the mines on the waters of Snake river, and the late outbreak will only hasten that event by rousing citizens and military to energetic action.

The road from the mouth of Muscle Shell river, the head of navigation on the Missouri river to Helena runs through a fine farming country for the greater part of its length which is about two hundred and twenty five miles.

The diggings found last fall between Big and Little Blackfoot fifty miles from Hedgate Bar, are turning out to be rich and extensive. On Elk Creek some twenty gulches (small creeks) have proven to be rich and claims are already selling well up in the thousands.

A proclamation has been issued by acting Governor T F Meagher of Montana calling an election for members of a convention to meet at Bannack City on the 26th of March. The object to be held on the 24th of February. The purpose appears to be to make a State out of Montana on short notice.

Lane County.—The State Journal publishes the following:

In to-day's paper we publish the call of the Lane County Central Committee, for precinct meetings and county convention. The Union voters of the various precincts in the county are requested to meet at their respective places of holding elections, on Saturday, the 10th day of next month and select delegates to attend at Eugene City on the Saturday following (March 17th) for the purpose of choosing delegates to represent the county in the County Convention. The committee are of opinion that this would be the nearly to nominate county officers, and therefore, they recommend that the delegates meet again on the 28th of April in regular County Convention for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. They think this will give more general satisfaction to the people, especially those residing in the country. It will give them a better opportunity to select good candidates as they will have more time to ascertain the merits of the various aspirants and to learn the preference of the masses in regard to each thereby preventing any unfairness which might result from hasty action.

W I Henderson and W R Gale, who volunteered in this county three years ago, under Capt Small, in Company G, 1st Oregon Cavalry, returned home a few days ago, having been honorably discharged after serving out their full term of four years. Some eight or ten others were mustered out at the same time. We are glad to see the boys at home again, and hope the other volunteers from this county will soon be discharged. They were entitled to their discharge many months ago. The War Department ordered them to be mustered out last fall and yet the commanding officer, managed to evade the order and still continues to do so.

The frame of the new saw mill of Underwood & Co., now being built at Springfield, was raised last Thursday. The machinery will be put in as soon as possible, and the mill will be completed at an early day. We understand that it will be one of the best mills in the upper part of the valley. It is greatly needed, as lumber for building purposes can not be obtained at all now.

INCORPORATED 1843.

ASSETS,
All Cash - - $14,000,000
ANNUAL INCOME all Cash over $3,500,000
PAID CLAIMS by Death over $6,500,000

The OLDEST AND LARGEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES.
EVERY DESCRIPTION OF POLICY ISSUED.
ALL POLICIES ARE NON FORFEITABLE.
Dividends are declared Annually—which can be applied on Cash to reduce or to yearly premium commencing on the second year; or to be in buying future insurance.
The First Dividend (Feb 1st 1866) was nearly double in amount and in proportion to premiums paid in every Insurance Company in the world.

N B—If the cessation is at request of the advancing health of the payment of the first three of the Life and Endowment Insurance policies in Ten Annual Instalments. The rates of said premiums charged by this Company are lower than the dividends are greater than in any other life company in the United States. An additional inducement this Company will on surrender of such policy issue a paid up policy for an equitable sum which they will guarantee SHALL EXCEED the proportionate amount.

For instance on surrender of a policy for $10,000 (other amounts in the same proportion) on which the premiums are payable in annual instalments, the Company will issue a PAID-UP POLICY which they will guarantee

After the payment of 2 premiums SHALL EXCEED $2000 / 3000

And so on. On the Five Year Life Plan the proportion is double.

ENDOWMENT POLICIES are issued payable to the assured at death or any age between 40 and 65, with full participation in the surplus of the Company, thus combining Life Insurance with a safe and profitable investment.

It has been clearly proven that there is no way of investing where amounts are paid as in small instalments to as much advantage as a manner—and bring in as large returns as in an Endowment Policy in the Company. They are also beginning to be considered as ABSOLUTE NECESSITY by Merchants and others—for aside from a Life Insurance it constitutes the finest form of collateral to have by them upon which to borrow or convert into cash in cases of emergency.

THE PUBLIC CEMETERY.—The following from a citizen is upon a very important subject and is commended to the consideration of the public of this city before the ground selected for the purpose is appropriated:

One could visit our city without being forcibly struck with the dreadful lack of burial grounds. Indeed, as soon as well as for the public and private interests of the living by those who have gone before, we would stand forever set apart as the civilized municipalities of Christendom. But I am a stranger, not passing through the city, where sleeps or lived and what judgment would be formed of us if a There they lie within the fences that should protect them from strife to the earth and the animal which roam in search of pasturage. All intelligent travelers concede that the respect which is paid to the dead is a fair criterion by which to judge of the intelligence of a people. Judging by that test where would the citizens of Portland now stand in the scale of humanity? Even the semi barbarous Chinese from whom, in our just Caucasian pride we withhold the right of citizenship would be our superiors and would almost be placed on a level with the ignorant Hottentot of the British Africa. I trust Mr Editor that our City Fathers will move in this matter. It is objected that the city have already a cemetery. But the answer is, that the universal choice of the people has dictated that spot and selected Mount Crawford and should not that choice be respected? And I further trust, if the City Council do move again in the matter that our Honorable Mayor will not interpose his veto (prompted no doubt, by his keen and critical construction of Constitutional law) to thwart the will of the people. Let him remember that it is taught that there are higher laws than Constitution and that patriotism often makes a law of the very thing. For liberal counsels will ever shed higher renown with those that do the will and bless of our Christian civilization by furnishing appropriate homes for the dead. A CITIZEN

NEW.—The establishment of a lumber yard in the north portion of the city by Messrs Sutton & Co is one of those facilities for the accommodation of our building which has long desired. This firm have every advantage for the business they have engaged in, and purpose doing a heavy business. We have been endeavoring for some time to arrive at a conclusion regarding the prospects of lumber likely to be made in this vicinity this year, but have so far failed utterly to get at anything like correct statistics. The mills of this city—Harbaugh & Stilzel, and Messrs. Bates and the yard of Messrs Sutton & Co, will be capable of turning out 12,000,000 feet. The present prices are rough lumber, $11 50 per M., assorted $20; street and side-walk plank delivered $25; dressed on one side, $34; do on both sides, $38; flooring, tongued and grooved $30; dressed $35; lattice and picketing per lineal foot, Sutton & Co. are prepared at all times to furnish lumber, on account of their arrangements for sawing by a process of super heated steam.

RAINY.—"Raining as usual," was the exclamation of several Oregonians yesterday. We begin to say too much in ridicule of Oregon weather. That there are districts in Italy which, in respect of rainfall, compare favorably with any on the north Pacific coast, as the climate of those regions is classed as a "dry" one, we should feel inclined at having any doubt. But that of Oregon the past winter has been superior to that of all that stretch of high-lying land in southern Europe. It is a mistake to suppose Italy the most genial and wholesome region in the world, and those persons who flatter themselves that they know all about it should recollect that there is always a gloomy overlay in Italy than in other European countries. The most tropical climate must present its serious inconveniences. How is it with Washington, not as physical a name as "Italy," but just as well adapted to the existence of cattle, from which Italy takes its name? It is a matter of history that people have live longer, and enjoyed better health than any other portion of the American continent. Natives of Washington should not complain, since they have it in Oregon long enough to know the full benefits of its climate.

THE STEAMER.—The following passengers per steamship Pacific, from San Francisco, by the steamship Pacific, from San Francisco, for Portland: Gov A G Gibbs, H Woodfield, O H Lewis, John Wiseman, J H Huntington, S A Clarke, J P Fitzgerald, A Waterford, H Waterford, C M McCarver, A Sullivan, Mrs H Miller, Miss H Miller, Miss Lane, Miss S A Lane, L B Kuhland, Miss King, W Baldwin, D G Denney, John Warren, wife & daughter, Wm Dennis, H H Smith, T J Cole, R O Tibbetts, L P Dalton, wife & two children, J Jacobs, wife and servant, Dr J R Bailey, wife & child, H A Wade, Mark A King, M L Chapin, wife & child, E D Knapp, L Hill, Miss Hill, Mrs Lane, John Lane, Miss S A Mather, Miss VanDyke, Miss Ida, Wm Lemaster, E Ackerman, H Hind, G W Wright & three children, J A Stambaugh, J Leininger, D Roth, Chas Washner, L Gerber, G Reuben, W H J Stone, W F [illegible], O Hollister, C Fisher, A McCollish, W O Beck, H Hall, Lathrop, C F Walker, C M Carr, M Huch & wife, A Schild, A Weis & wife & child Healey, Walter & Co & 70 in the steerage.

DIED.—Capt. Chas. Holman, late Commander of the steamer John H. Couch, a worthy citizen from the Astoria Gazette on his return from the Astoria where he has been cruising for three or four months, giving the best of satisfaction to every one. It is a hard matter indeed to please everybody, but we would agree in the opinion that Capt. H could do it as well as any man. Peace and rest to his ashes, but there he has given general satisfaction and we hope [illegible] will attend his future efforts, whatever he may undertake.

A FIRE.—[illegible] at about 11 o'clock A. M. there was a fire in the chimney leading from the [illegible] office. No alarm was given, but a gentleman from the Court room was the result. As [illegible] and countage took place, but no [illegible] Had it happened in the night time the [illegible] would have been required sooner than [illegible] Chief Engineer Starr, No. 2 Company claim the "first [illegible] upon this occasion, notwithstanding [illegible] alarm, as one of their members, Mr W [illegible] present, a bailiff, took active part in stopping [illegible]

CIRCUIT COURT—HOFFMAN J., February 27th, 1866.—[illegible] was tried on an indictment of M R Williams, charged with [illegible] larceny, the $5 and costs, paid. Defendant was absent from the late South in Confederacy, where he had [illegible] this country, and claimed, when [illegible], that he was "a regular Jeff. Davis man, by G—!" He [illegible] all probable symptoms of "Democracy," and has but recently been [illegible] by an attack of the [illegible] all in consequence of his hydrophobic tendencies. The public are safe at last [illegible] from the Pacific, and many of those are already [illegible]

CIRCUIT COURT—Opened H. D Shattuck, J., February 27th, 1866. The jury in the case of McGowan vs. Ankeny rendered a verdict for defendant.—George W. Wright was found guilty of horse-stealing. Sentence reserved.—To-day the case of the State vs [illegible] charged with robbing a traveler who was stopping at the East Portland Hotel, at the time of the burning of those premises, will be tried.

MINING.—We are pleased to meet our friend R. B. Knapp, of the firm of Knapp, Burt & Co., looking hale and hearty, after a nine months tour of [illegible] to the West. He brought with him a portion of his [illegible] and some 1,500 lbs are yet on the way. This [illegible] better [illegible] to the agricultural [illegible] than even before.

RAILROAD.—On account of the heavy rain which is very "wet," work on buildings and streets about the city has been suspended temporarily. The work on the new [illegible] brick buildings in front of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company's wharf, and just been commenced, will be [illegible]. The Oro Fino Hall was nearly enclosed when the storm set in.

CONTEMPLATED.—We learn that the late difficulty [illegible] from the refusal of the steamship Pacific to take Victoria passengers from this city recently, after a delay of three weeks on account of the accident to the Sierra Nevada, have been settled by compromising with the passengers. The matter cost the company considerable.

GOOD PASSAGE.—The steamship Pacific is certainly entitled to some credit for the last trip she has made to Portland, performing in less time by over three hours than any steamship ever before performed. This may be attributed to the fine weather, and the fact that the [illegible] was at her heels.

FREIGHTS.—As an evidence of business, we may mention that at no time last season was there so much inquiry for freights up the Columbia as at this time. The O. S. N. Company propose putting on an extra line of steamers, and will soon be running a fast express line through the entire distance of their route.

LIEN.—D Smith commenced proceedings yesterday before Justice Hoffman, against R G Dunlap and Rich and Brown, on a charge of libel, defendants put in bail in a case in which they accused plaintiff of being a villain. The case was set for hearing on Thursday next March 1st, at 10 A M.

U S CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY J.—Feb 27th 1866.—Cullen C Chapman ex School District No 1 et al. The day was consumed in hearing the remainder of the evidence in this case and the argument of counsel. The closing argument will be made this morning.

MONTANA ROAD MEETING.—The Montana road committee were unable to report yesterday, and the meeting at the Block and Fuel agent Board rooms was further postponed. We would suggest that it may be necessary that the action here be made known in San Francisco early.

FROM ASTORIA.—The steamer John H Couch Captain Blow, arrived from below last evening. The bark Ellen W Johnson after loading 75,000 feet of lumber at Rainier was taken to Westport where she will finish her cargo and sail on Friday next.

SNOW IN WASCO COUNTY.—A private letter dated Feb 21th, from Fowler river valley states that there was at that time eight inches of fresh snow in that vicinity.

FROM TILLAMOOK.—The fast schooner J C Champion will arrive from Tillamook on or about March 10th, and have dispatch with a cargo for that locality.

The Rev Mr Quint, of the North Congregational Church New Bedford, Massachusetts has received a call to the pastorate of the Park street Church, Boston, in place of Rev Dr Stone who has accepted the call to a church in San Francisco, California.

Late Eastern Items

We gather the following items from the New York papers of Feb 1st:

On the night of the 19th of January as the telegraph boy was entering the private room of Senator Sumner at Washington with a dispatch he stumbled upon a negro boy, who had fallen asleep against the door. A loud noise aroused Mr Sumner and on entering found a negro boy nearly wrapped in a shawl. He (Mr S.) was struck almost not recognizing the child. He said:

"Is any person of color here? Is any one of your friends in difficulty? If you do I will have a price upon [illegible]."

The finger must have been very subject else one from the hand of a negro or mulatto.

Secretary of the Interior Harlan was serenaded in Washington on the 26th ult. and in response to those outside addressed a large assemblage of loyalists on the occasion. He spoke at some length relative to the overshadowing question of the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion and expressed it as his opinion as well as that of the President that the entire matter should be left to Congress. He believed that the freedmen will not long be deprived of citizenship and will rather trust an ignorant loyal man than a wise rebel.

It is stated from several different sources that Major Gen Thomas confirms in all important particulars the account of the condition of Tennessee contained in the Union memorials from that State to Congress and the President. Gen Thomas does not conceive it consistent with the public safety to withdraw the troops or to surrender Tennessee to the control of its rebel majority.

The thirty fifth annual assemblage of the Massachusetts Anti slavery Society was held in Boston on January 25th. A resolution was proposed to dissolve the Society, on the ground that slavery having ceased to exist in the country the work of the organization is at an end. It was opposed, and Wendell Phillips appointed the resolution, and the Society finally agreed to continue its existence, and officers for the ensuing year were therefore elected.

The Secretary of the Interior, in response to a resolution of the House communicates a list of the cities of the United States with the statistics of their manufactories, including those having 10,000 inhabitants and upward. It includes 103 cities, beginning with New York and ending with Newport Ky. The total capital employed is $417,129 231, hands employed—males 410 979 females, 147 060, value of products $874,934, 827. New York stands first in the list.

The House on the 26th voted to instruct the Committee on Claims to reject all claims for damages by citizens of rebel States on account of destruction of property by the army or navy during the rebellion. Even Mr Niblack while thinking loyal citizens ought to be paid agreed that it is impossible the Committee should pass on their claims.

Mr Trumbull form the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, reported on the 24th a resolution declaring that it is inexpedient to repeal the Test Oath at this time. The Secretaries who have notified Congress of their appointments in violation of the law requiring this oath will probably act in accordance with the report.

Elisha Lee Kent, D. D. LL. D., President of Union College, died at Albany on Jan 29, in the 93d year of his age. He had been for 62 years President of Union College, during which time more than 4,000 students were graduated from the institution.

A Washington paper announces the resignation of Captain G V Fox, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, to take effect on the 1st of March next. It further states that he resigns in order to accept the Presidency of the new California Steamship Company, recently organized in New York, at a salary of $15,000.

A gentleman recently arrived in Washington from Charleston says that in consequence of the cruel and oppressive legislation against the freedmen, enacted by the South Carolina Legislature Gen. Sykes has been compelled to issue a very radical order annulling all such legislative enactments.

The officers appointed by the Freedmen's Bureau, for taking the census of the colored population of the District of Columbia, have completed the census of Washington City, and find therein upward of 23,000 colored persons.

Mrs Lincoln realized $22,000 from the resolution giving one year's pay of the late President, less what the administration had drawn. She has directed General Spinner to invest it in Government securities for her.

The Governor of South Carolina has addressed a letter to the President, strongly urging the transfer of the lands now in the possession of negroes to the late owners of said lands.

The Louisiana Congressional delegation has left Washington for home, owing to the absence of any prospects of admission to their seats.

The gas monopolists of Chicago are about coming to grief, as a new gas, made from crude petroleum, is now being introduced there. The Chicago Post says that the light of the petroleum gas is fully four times greater than the light of the coal gas, and that it can be made at a very much less cost.

McCormick, inventor of the reaping machine that bears his name, has given $10,000 for the establishment of a professorship of practical mechanics in Washington College, presided over by Robert E. Lee. McCormick is a native of the State of Virginia.

Of the 9,000 postoffices in the disloyal States about 2,000 have been reopened. Nearly 300 of these have received postmistresses, because no men could be found who could take the oath that they had not borne arms against the country.

Proceedings of a Convention of Good Templars held at Salem Feb 20th and 21st, 1866.

The Convention was called to order and organized by the election of W. H Payne, of Portland, as Chairman, and H. H Gilfry, of Salem, as Secretary.

After the transaction of some business affecting the interest of the Order in Oregon, a Committee of three, consisting of Bros Moreland, Pearson and Gilfry, was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention. The Committee submitted the following resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the fearful prevalence of the use of intoxicating liquors on the Pacific Coast, and especially in Oregon demands the hands of every lover of our race, earnest effort and untiring perseverance in the great work of suppressing this giant evil.

Resolved, That while we set ourselves as friends of the Temperance, in army against no political party as a promise our support to none but that which accords with our political sentiments we deem it the moral obligation of every member of our Order to use his influence to secure the nomination of such men for office as favor the great work in which we are engaged.

Resolved That the success of our Order hitherto induces us to believe that no method better adapted to accomplish the great object of a permanent Temperance reformation has yet been established than the system under which our Order is working and that it being an organization in which all parties and sects can unite with perfect harmony, we earnestly and cordially invite all friends of the Temperance cause to aid us in bringing about the day "when everything that can intoxicate shall be driven from our land" and when the long train of evils that follows the use of alcoholic drinks shall be arrested by the golden beams of Truth and Temperance.

Resolved That we hail with joy the movement our petition, praying for a Charter for a Grand Lodge for Oregon and Washington Territory, has been accepted by the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of North America, and the assurance of the early completion of the organization of our Grand Lodge.

Resolved That we recognize in our parent Lodge, the Grand Lodge of California a zealous able and efficient body of Temperance laborers, and our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to the officers of that organization for the watchful care manifested for the subordinate Lodges of Oregon and Washington Territory.

On the evening of February 21st J S Smith Esq addressed the Convention after which the following was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention tender their heartfelt thanks to J S Smith for the able effort in all [illegible] address delivered her to the Convention this evening in behalf of the cause of Temperance.

The following resolutions were also adopted:

Resolved, That we should use our influence to secure the passage of a Prohibitory Liquor Law in Oregon.

Resolved That a copy of the proceedings of this Convention be sent for publication to the newspapers of Oregon the Vancouver Register and the Rescue at Sacramento.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

A law is on foot into effect in Alabama prohibiting any freedman mulatto or free person of color from owning fire arms, or carrying a pistol, under a penalty of three months imprisonment and a fine of $100. The dilemma which the chivalry have created for the negro is a fair parallel to the dilemma which the chivalry have created for the negro. If you do not carry arms you and your wife and children will be murdered and unprotected. If you do you shall be sent to jail and fined at ten dollars a piece.

PLANTATION BITTERS.

What more we can say than to tell the highest medicinal qualities of this article is beyond our belief. But they are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonic wherever a healthy gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system of man, [illegible] the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and clear the complexion.
They cure Dyspepsia, Constipation.
They cure Diarrhoea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervousness.
They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, with orange and sassafras roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St Croix rum. For particulars see circulars and testimonials which each bottle.

Beware of imposition. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U S Stamp, unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate all label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person purchasing to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk is an imposter. Any person imitating this bottle or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U S Law and will be so prosecuted by us. We only have one person in several parties re-filling our bottles &c, who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants &c is incredible. The simple trial of but a single bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

The Freedmen's Bureau Bill.

The following is a copy of the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, as originally passed by the Senate Some amendments, not materially changing the tenor of the Bill, were added before it was submitted to the President:

Section 1. That the act to establish a bureau for the relief of freedmen and refugees approved March 3d, 1865, shall continue in force until otherwise provided by law, shall extend to refugees and freedmen in certain parts of the United States and the President may divide the section of country containing such refugees and freedmen into districts, twelve in number, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint an Assistant Commissioner for each of said districts, who shall receive like bonds and receive the same compensation and perform the same duties prescribed by this and the act to which this is an amendment; or said bureau may, in the discretion of the President, be placed under a Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner, to be detailed from the army; in which event each officer so assigned to duty shall serve without increase of pay or allowance.

Sec. 2 That the Commissioner, with the approval of the President, shall divide such districts into a number of sub-districts, not to exceed the number of counties or parishes in each State, and shall assign to each sub district at least one agent, either a citizen, officer of the army or enlisted man, who, if an officer, shall serve without additional compensation or allowance; and if a citizen or enlisted man, shall receive a salary not exceeding $1,500 per annum; and each agent shall, before entering on the duties of his office, take the oath prescribed in the first section of the act to which this is an amendment. Each Assistant Commissioner may employ not exceeding six clerks, one of the third class and five of the first class, and each agent of a sub-district may employ two clerks of the first class. And the President of the United States, through the War Department and the Commissioners, shall extend military jurisdiction and protection over all the employees, agents and officers of this bureau in the exercise of the duties required or authorized by this act or the act to which this act is supplementary.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War may direct such issues of provisions, clothing, fuel and other supplies, including medical stores and transportation, and afford such aid, medical or otherwise, as he may deem needful for the immediate and temporary shelter and supply of destitute and suffering refugees and freedmen and their wives and children, under such rules and regulations as he may direct.

Sec. 4. That the President be authorized to reserve from sale or from settlement, under the homestead or pre-emption laws, and to set apart for the use of freedmen and loyal refugees, unoccupied public lands in Florida, Mississippi and Arkansas, not exceeding in all three millions of acres of good land; and the Commissioner, under the direction of the President, shall cause the same from time to time, to be allotted and assigned, in parcels not exceeding forty acres each, to the loyal refugees and freedmen, who shall be protected in the use and occupancy thereof for such term of time and at such annual rent as may be agreed upon between the Commissioner and such refugees and freedmen. The rental shall be based upon a valuation of the land, to be ascertained in such manner as the Commissioner may, under the direction of the President, by regulation prescribe, at the end of such term, or sooner if the Commissioner see fit so to do. The occupants of any parcels so assigned may purchase land and receive the title therefor from the United States in fee upon paying therefor the value of the land, ascertained as aforesaid.

Sec. 5. That the occupants of land under Major General Sherman's special field order, dated at Savannah, January 15, 1865, are hereby confirmed in their possession for the period of three years from the date of said order, and no person shall be disturbed in or evicted from said possession during said three years, unless a settlement shall be made with the said occupant by the owner satisfactory to the Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau.

Sec. 6. That the Commissioner shall, under the direction of the President, procure in the name of the United States, by grant or purchase, such lands within the districts aforesaid as may be required for refugees and freedmen dependent on the Government for support, and he shall provide or cause to be built suitable asylums and schools. But no such purchase shall be made, nor contract for the same entered upon, nor other expense incurred until after appropriations shall have been made by Congress for the general purposes of this act, out of which payments for said lands shall be made. And the Commissioner shall cause said lands from time to time to be valued, allotted, leased and sold in the manner and form as in the preceding section, provided always that such lands shall not be sold for less than the cost thereof to the United States.

Sec. 7. That wherever in any State or district in which the ordinary course of judicial proceedings has been interrupted by the rebellion, and shall be in consequence of any State or local law, ordinance, police or other regulation, custom or prescription, any of the civil rights or immunities belonging to white persons, including the right to make and enforce general contracts, to sue, be parties and give evidence, to inherit, purchase, lease, sell, hold and convey real and personal property, and to have full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of person and estate, are refused or denied to negroes, mulattoes, freedmen, or refugees, or any other persons, on account of race, color, or any previous condition of slavery, or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, or wherein they or any of them are subject to any other or different punishment, pains or penalties, for the commission of any act or offence, than are prescribed for white persons committing like acts or offences, it shall be the duty of the President of the United States, through the Commissioner, to extend military protection and jurisdiction over all cases affecting such persons so discriminated against.

Sec. 8. That any person who, under color of any State or local law, ordinance, police or other regulation or custom, shall, in any State or district in which the ordinary course of judicial proceedings has been interrupted by the rebellion, subject or cause to be subjected any negro, mulatto, freedman, refugee or other person, on account of race or color, or any previous condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, or for any other cause, to the deprivation of any civil right secured to white persons, or to any other or different punishment than white persons are subject to for the commission of like acts and offences, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and it shall be the duty of the officers and agents of this bureau to take jurisdiction of and hear and determine all offences committed against the provisions of this section, and also of all cases affecting negroes, mulattoes, freedmen, refugees or other persons who are discriminated against in any of the particulars mentioned in the preceding section of this act, after such rules and regulations as the President, through the War Department, shall prescribe. The jurisdiction conferred by this section on the officers and agents of this bureau is not to operate to deprive any State court of jurisdiction over any such offence, but the jurisdiction conferred by this section shall cease and determine when the discrimination on account of color, &c., of which it is conferred ceases, and in no event to be exercised in any State in which the ordinary course of judicial proceedings has not been interrupted by the rebellion, nor in any State after it shall have been fully restored in all its constitutional relations to the United States, and the Courts of the State and of the United States within the same are not disturbed or stopped in the peaceable course of justice.

GOVERNOR BROWNLOW'S OPINION.—A Washington dispatch of January 29th says

A letter from Governor Brownlow, of Tennessee, to Speaker Colfax was published this morning. Governor Brownlow favors the admission of Tennessee Representatives to Congress, but says if the removal of Federal troops from Tennessee must necessarily follow the admission of Congressional delegation, the loyal men of Tennessee beg to be without representatives in Congress, though he thinks the members can be admitted, and sufficient force retained to control the rebellious. He says that without a law to disfranchise rebels and force to carry out the provisions of that law this State would pass into the hands of rebels, and a terrible state of affairs would follow. The Union men will be driven from the State or forced to sacrifice what they have and seek homes elsewhere, and yet Tennessee is in a much better condition than any other of the revolted States, and affords a stronger loyal population.

THE COLORED POPULATION OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—Mr Wilson, of Iowa, in a late speech in Congress last Wednesday said that 2 549 black men marched from the District of Columbia in defence of the country. According to the census of 1860 there were 14,316 persons of color in the District, since which time the number has been increased. They owned $1,250,000 worth of real estate. Their church property is valued at $125,000. The twenty one churches are supported at a cost of $21,000. There are 4 306 communicants, and the average church attendance is 9 000 persons. He also referred to the number of schools for colored persons, saying 4,000 in the District could read and write, and he also alluded to their literary and charitable institutions.

More of the "Gwin Sonora Scheme"

There has been issued from the Government Printing office at Washington, the message of the President of the United States communicating to the Senate information relating to the plans to induce immigration of disenfranchised citizens of the United States into Mexico and especially in regard to the plans of Wm. M. Gwin, and M. F. Maury. The document has been already briefly alluded to, and it may now be added, as a matter of interest that on the 6th of February, 1865, Senor Romero, the representative of the Mexican Republican Government at Washington, addressed a letter to Secretary Seward protesting in the most explicit and formal manner against the course which the ex Archduke of Austria Ferdinand Maximilian, has made or is about to make to the French Government of the various States of the Mexican Republic. In February last Senor Romero called the attention of Secretary Seward to the printed documents which accompanied his note, and which, he says, show not only the cordial understanding which existed, to the injury of the United States, between the insurgents against the Government in Texas and the French who are waging war against the Government of Mexico in Matamoras, but also the measures taken to concert, between the French and their agents on the one part, and the insurgents of Texas on the other, to resist the power of the National Government in Mexico sent with a view of recovering the post of Matamoras from the possession of the French.

Among the papers submitted by Mr Romero is a letter from Bravinjo A Mejia, who says before leaving Mexico he was shown the original letter from Napoleon to Marshal Bazaine, recommending Dr Gwin's plan as submitted to him, and directing the Marshal to furnish the troops demanded by Gwin. The object, he says, is to colonise Sonora and other frontier States with veteran Confederates as a barrier to any aggression of the United States; and to then create a power always hostile, and, with the assistance of the French, sufficiently formidable to resist all attempts against Maximilian.

Secretary Seward on July 18, 1865, thanked Senor Romero for communicating the important information, and informed him that the subject would receive the prompt consideration of this Government, and that the proper measures would be adopted in reference to them. The Secretary accordingly wrote to Minister Bigelow, inclosing a copy of these intercepted letters, two from William M Gwin and one from his son, showing that Dr. Gwin and his family are disloyal, that they are engaged in obtaining grants of mineral lands in the States of that Republic adjoining the United States, and that Dr Gwin is to be the chief directing agent in working these mines, that a large accession of capitalists and emigrants in those States, from the rebels against the United States, is expected; that they assure the said Maximilian and the Emperor of France that their contemplated proceedings tend to promote Maximilian's success, that they regarded their enterprise as injurious to the United States, and that they claim to have the patronage of the Emperor of the French, with assurances of military aid.

Mr. Seward says:

I have to request that you will submit a copy of this intercepted correspondence to M. Drouyn de Lhuys. You will frankly inform him that the sympathies of the American people are already considerably excited in favor of the Republic of Mexico, and that they are disposed to regard with impatience the continued intervention of France in that country; that any favor shown to the proceedings of Dr Gwin by the titular Emperor of Mexico or the Imperial Government of France with reference to those agents, will tend greatly to increase the popular impatience, because it will be regarded, perhaps justly, as importing dangers to, or at least as a menace against the United States.

M. Drouyn de Lhuys, in August last, replied to Minister Dayton, saying

"As for France, she has on several occasions, and with entire frankness, stated her resolution to observe in all the internal questions which may agitate or divide the Union, an impartial and scrupulous neutrality. We have nothing to offer as a pledge of our intentions but our word, but we deem the word of France a guarantee which will satisfy any friendly Power, as we ourselves are satisfied with the word pledged to us by the Federal Government to remain strictly neutral with regard to affairs in Mexico."

In November last, Senor Romero addressed a letter to Secretary Seward, transmitting to him a copy in English of the so-called five decrees of the ex-Arch-Duke of Austria, in which he names M. F. Maury, a declared enemy of the United States, an honorary consulator of the State and Imperial Commissioner of Colonization; and S. B. Magruder, also a declared enemy of this Government, as chief of the Colonization Land Office. Maury has been authorized to establish agencies in the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Texas, Missouri and California, and the cities of Mobile and New Orleans, which plainly shows that they only think to get men from the South, and specially from those States where there are malcontents against the Government. It is a very significant fact that not one single agency is established in the Northern States which were faithful to the Union of this Government during the late civil war.

Secretary Seward, December 21st, informs Senor Romero that the documents have been duly considered by this Government, and shall hereafter receive the attention to which they are justly entitled.

THE STANDARD AMERICAN BILLIARD TABLES!

AND COMBINATION CUSHIONS.

MESSRS. PHELAN & COLLENDER

WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENtion of persons wanting Billiard Tables to the great superiority of the above tables, manufactured exclusively at their establishment

At the Billiard Congress of 1863, composed of all the first-class players of America, it was unanimously resolved that tables of our manufacture should be used in all matches for the Championship, as the best and only reliable tables

These Billiard Tables have received the unqualified approval of the first players and most competent judges, who have universally pronounced them unequaled for general excellence and durability.

Between thirty and forty improvements in Billiard Tables have been granted to me by the United States Patent Office, and we have lately obtained a Patent from the French Government, for our improvement in Billiard Cushions

We employ, in the construction of our tables, a variety of machines specially made for the purpose, by means of which we are enabled to insure a scientific and mechanical accuracy hitherto unknown in Billiard manufacture

Having a long experience and thorough knowledge of all the requisites of Billiards and constantly on hand a large stock of the best and most thoroughly seasoned materials we are prepared to furnish everything required in the Billiard line with unprecedented dispatch

The eminent French Billiard Player, M Perger, has published the following opinion:

"NEW YORK, 20 August 1864

"On the eve of leaving the United States, I am happy to declare to all amateurs of Billiards that, after a tour of eleven months through the principal cities, I have been unable to judge in a satisfactory manner of the superiority of the Billiard Tables manufactured by Phelan & Collender The system of manufacturing is so superior, that I am happy to introduce their style of cushion into France. They have united to their manufacture of American Billiard Tables that of the French Tables, of remarkable excellence and beauty For these reasons, I am happy to make this declaration.

"PERGER, CLAUDIUS,
Prof of Billiards, Paris"

Parties ordering from us will find our prices as low as good work can possibly be made for. We sell first-class articles at a fair price, and will not make an inferior article at any price

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful in the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places He therefore cautions and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Sexual Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice, or dispensation of sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the eyes, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, foetid breath coughs, consumption, night sweats, no stamina, and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by this new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which is never at fault affecting a quick and radical cure Dr G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge
